one is enough.

I've been at St. Paul's for five years, and I'm ready to leave. Its a pretty good school, but I need to go to a bigger school with more people. It's been fun going to St. Paul's (most of the time).

was fun; but the spelling bee
was certainly the funniest
of them all.

One of the most fun times I had at St. Pauls was going to an art exhibit. The exhibit exposed me to strange and different things.
we also did art projects such as making masks and pictures. I liked starting with a clean slate at the beginning of the year. I liked Mr. Bellis' field trips to Chabot. The school is blessed with many nice teachers. One of the most memorable experiences was performing in our chapel service. I was given a good part a
I felt proud because we wrote the play ourselves. Tada

RUSKIN VAUGHN

My favorite event of the school year was going to the SF museum of Modern Art. There we saw the exhibit called, "David Hockney Paints the Stage." My favorite part of the exhibit was the fluorescent room where the bad boy was sent.

ST. PAULS

Sometimes I go into my own world. But that's okay
they know me there.

My favorite memory was when Ms. Elliott picked up pizza (even though she told us she hadn't) when we forgot to arrange for its pick-up. You see, the class wanted to have pizza for the class party. We agreed that we would take care of the matter. When party time came there was no pizza. The class worried a lot; and then, as if by magic, Ms. Elliott made the pizza appear. She saved the day! My favorite memory is from English class because of my English teacher. Ms. Elliott is a funny teacher. She likes to kid around while she teaches and for this reason I find her classes memorable. James

MY FONDDEST MEMORY OF ST. PAULS WAS WHEN WE WENT TO SEE A PLAY CALLED "A CHRISTMAS CAROL." ONE OF OUR STUDENTS WAS STARRING IN THAT PLAY. THE THEATER WAS PACKED FULL. THERE WAS A LONG LINE TO GET IN. ALL OF THE TEACHERS WERE VERY THOUGHTFULL.

AFTER THE PLAY THE TEACHERS US TO GO TO BLONDIES PIZZA. THERE WE TOOK THE BART BACK TO ST. PAULS AND WHEN WE GOT THERE IT WAS TIME TO GO HOME. THAT WAS THE BEST TIME I HAD AT ST. PAULS.

My favorite memory at St. Pauls was when I was Student of the week. I also liked Mr. Bellis and his accent. It was nice to see all my old friends again. I liked changing classes, the talent show was fun to watch; so all in all, though the year was hard it was fun.

One of my favorite memories is the time we put on our first chapel play. I enjoyed playing the Bag Lady. It was fun to make up lines. Right before we put it on I was so nervous that I wanted to quit but I couldn't let everyone down. Once the show started the audience's laughter inspired me. The only drawback was that no one could hear us; but it was fun anyway and I enjoyed it a lot. Anne

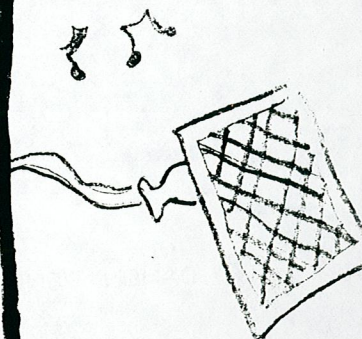

My best memories of the year were at the beginning when I saw my friends again. It was fun to meet the new teachers. I enjoyed the field trips and the play, "A Christmas Carol." We have done a lot of things that other kids would probably never do and should and that's why this year was one of the best. Jo-Jo

I have a lot of fond and great memories from just one year at St. Pauls. I remember getting ready for the chapel plays. We wrote scripts, planned costumes and made-up dances. We danced, acted and sang. Good field trips to museums and seeing Geraldine Ferraro at City Hall are also part of these good memories. Erin

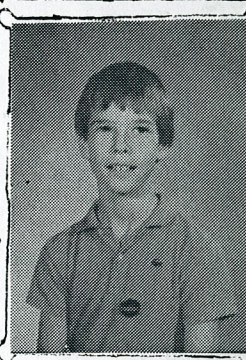

My favorite memory of St. Pauls is of the field trips; to Chabot Lake Anza, David Hockney and the other museums. I will not forget the lunch at the Mexican restaurant and when we went to the "Christmas Carol." Rhonda R

I liked a lot of things about the year; spring break, field trips, new teachers, the visiting theatre group (the high school girls), and my friendships. So far, most of the books we read have been interesting. I think if I had to choose a favorite it would be between The Diary of Anne Frank and The Pearl.

The back packing trip that the 7th and 8th grade went on was fun.

We left on the first trail to Sky Camp at 11:00 A.M. We arrived at 4:00 and set up our tent. The next day we left for Coast Camp at 7:00. We arrived at 3:00 and that night went to the beach. The next day we left at 10:00 to go to the parking lot where we were picked up.

Although it was painful to carry the back pack, all in all I liked the trip.

JESSICA BOBIER

On May 2-4 the 7th and 8th grade went on a camping trip to Point Reyes. All my class mates told me it was really fun. I didn't go because I went somewhere else. During that weekend I went and saw a movie. For the rest of my weekend I worked very hard at my father's Restaurant.

JOHN YIANNAKOPOULOS

SAM GRAVES

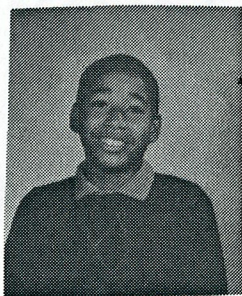

To me the camping trip was O.K., but the weather ruined it. The dinners were fine but the breakfasts were so nasty. For Friday's breakfast we had scrambled eggs that were nasty with cream cheese and legals. Also the first hike was real hard since we had to go up some very steep hills, but the rest of the trip was fine. The second hike was beautiful. I had a great view of the ocean.

I thought the 7th & 8th Grade
Camping trip to Point Reyes was Alright but it couldn't hang with me,
So I left the whole group behind.
Another exciting part was the night walk, mostly everybody went,
who wasn't scared. When we went on the night trip everybody was left in a different place because we were playing truth.

But the worst part was the
rain everybody's were soaking wet,
including mine.

JENABU KINCHEN

We went to a camping trip
on Thursday May 2, 1985, and it was not all fun on our first hike.
But then came our second hike.
It was very fun, and sunny also refreshing. The other campsite was too windy, the food was watery and nasty. But I have to admit the only really fun
part was on the beach when Sean tried to jump a stream flowing in the ocean and panicked. He ran into the sand bank. The trip wasn't what I thought it was going to be, I thought it was going to be deep in the woods,
and a fishing lake there.

KATHY LITTLES

The backpacking trip to Point Reyes was a mix between hardwork, disgust and happiness. The first day was miserable climbing those long hills.
But when I got to the camp site I felt really good. The food was disgusting especially breakfast.
There was also lots of happiness being with my friends and things. So to sum it all up I thought the trip was really good, inspite of all the bad things.

The 7th and 8th grade camping trip was fun. I liked the hikes they were fun. But on one of the hikes I fell and cut my hand and arm. The camp grounds were good but too windy.

LANCE ARMSTRONG

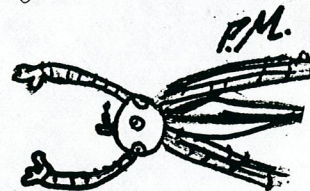

The 7th and 8th grade camping trip was fun. I liked the hikes. They were fun. But on one of the hikes I fell and cut my hand and arm. The camp ground were good but too windy.

PAUL MARKETTE

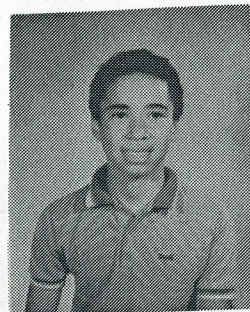

The 7th 8th Grade backpacking trip was fun. We hiked about 11 maybe 12 miles altogether. The first hike seemed like it was 98% steep uphill. After that hike, I was exhausted. We set up camp and made dinner. It started raining. After dinner, we went on a night hike. The next day we went downhill to the beach. It was so windy down there that it destroyed one of Dave's tents. Sean's socks got blown up about 200 feet onto a cliff.

The third day we hiked back and it was pretty easy. It was mostly flat. Overall the trip was a lot of fun and I might go hiking again only I hope that next time it's more fun.

RICHARD CARTER

The trip to Point Reyes was both and bad. Mostly bad because of the weather. For example the wind on the second day ripped one of the tents and gave us a hard time putting up the tents. The food we ate was pretty good the first day but the rest of the food I didn't like. I thought that the hiking part of the trip was hard because of the wind and hills. I think that if we just went camping it would have been more fun.
